Guidelines:

1. Video should be no more than 30 seconds in length. Final delivery format needs to be a .mov and will need to be electronically submitted to Jennifer McKinney, Tacoma Art Place Video Contest Coordinator, at jennifermckinney2009@hotmail.com. Videos will be posted on the Tacoma Art Place Youtube account and hits will be measured by the TAP moderator in determining the winner.
2. The contest encourages filmmakers of all backgrounds to try their hand at making a commercial. The video must incorporate the mission of Tacoma Art Place: “To provide access to equipment and training that will allow more people to affordably explore their creativity and artistic ability. We have a special emphasis to reach underserved individuals with free or reduced-cost memberships and to offer arts education in the community. Buy an annual membership today or give a friend the gift of a membership or day pass. Individuals and businesses can support our mission by donating equipment or funds.” TAP freely encourages artistic license in expressing this mission. The video must also incorporate the TAP logo, which can be downloaded from our website at www.tacomaartplace.org. Any other use of the TAP logo other than for the purposes of this video contest is expressly prohibited and protected by copyright law.
3. Videos should be family and network-friendly. Entries containing profanity, nudity, or any content deemed questionable by contest administrators will be disqualified.
4. Final entry submissions become the property of Tacoma Art Place to use at-will. Entrants may keep working files and tapes for their own purposes.
5. In the event of a tie, the Tacoma Art Place Board of Directors shall vote on the winner.
6. Immediately upon posting of entries on Youtube, entrants will be electronically notified of the links to their work for their own marketing purposes.
